

Durer in The Met

Clear

The Cor

Terence

The Apocalypse

All

Neuremberg

Wanderjahre

Milan

Traveling

Piceces
of Art

774 Count 13 0

Timeline

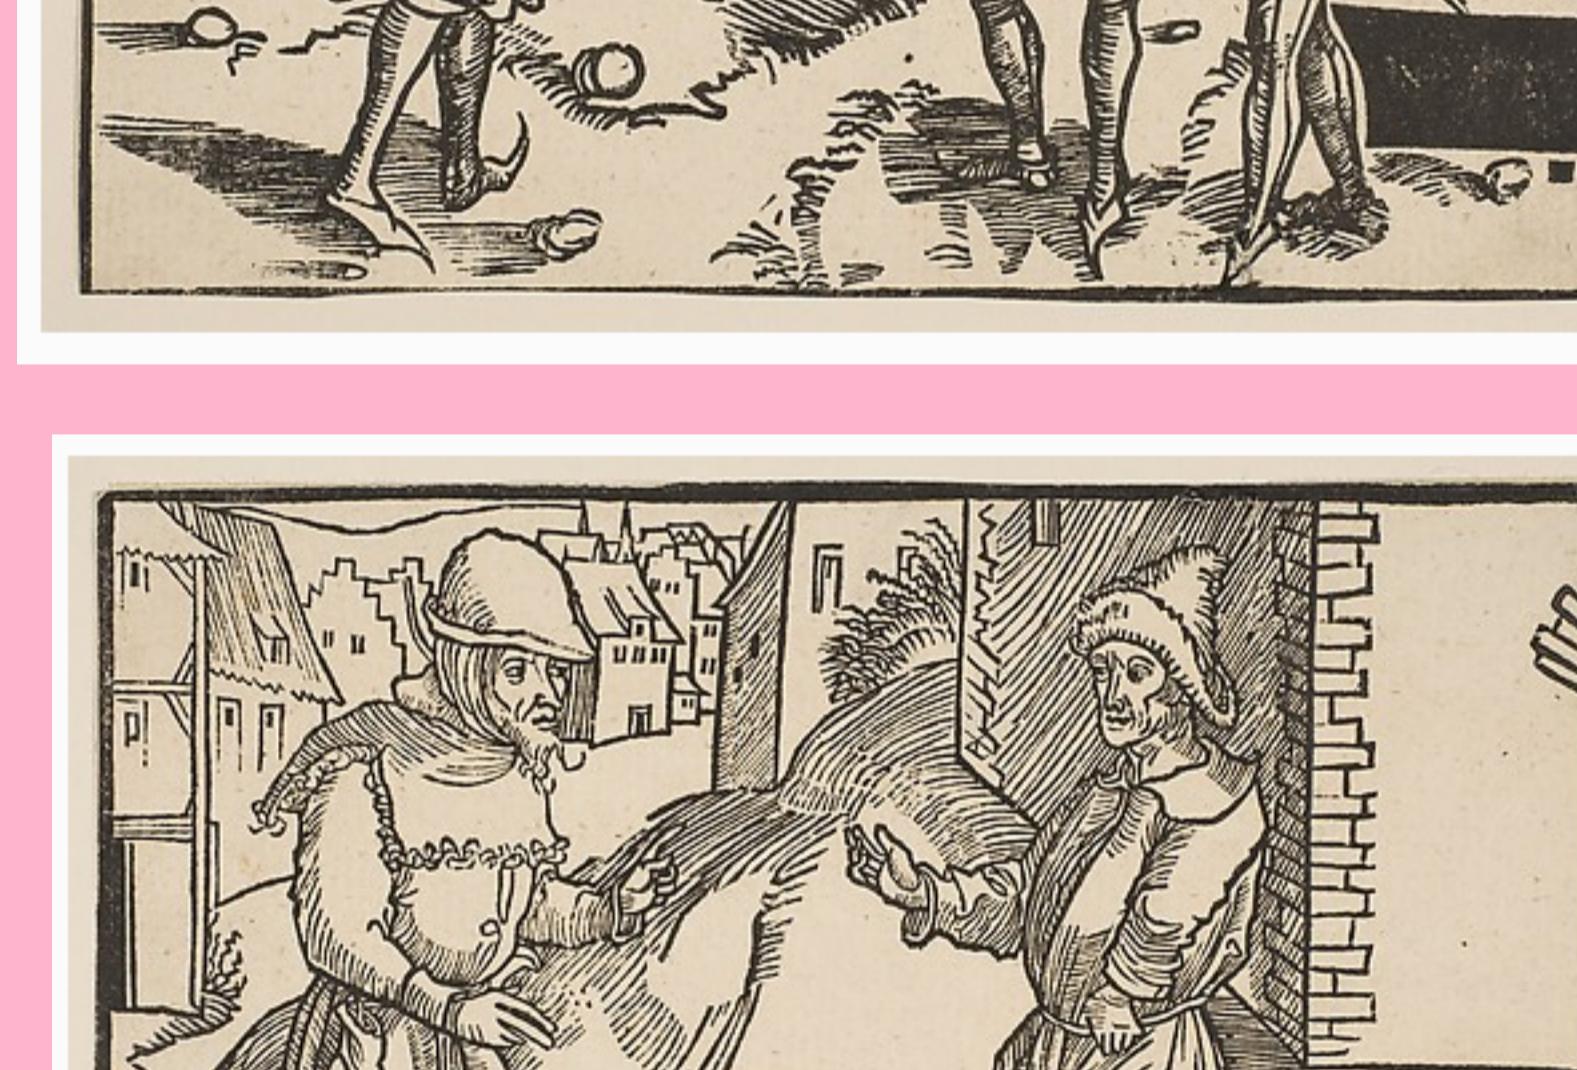

What's in the Met?

1481 Birth of Albrecht Durer - May 21

1483 Anton Koberger, Durer's godfather, printed an illustrated edition of the Bible in High German, complete with many remarkable woodcut illustrations.

1484 Durer, age 13, creates his self portrait drawing in silverpoint which he titled later "when I was a child"

1485

1486 Started as an apprentice to Michael Wolgemut, the leading artist in Nuremberg at the time.

1487

1488

1489 After completing his term of apprenticeship in 1489, Dürer followed the common German custom of taking a wanderjahr - in effect a gap year. Dürer was away nearly four years, travelling through Germany, Switzerland, and probably, the Netherlands.

1528

Death of Albrecht Durer - April 6